ABOUT THE SPEAKERS

Robert Williams is married to Helen Williams. They have three boys, and one granddaughter. Robert has been preaching the Gospel for 28 years. Brother Williams is a graduate of Jackson State University and the Memphis School of Preaching. He believes that becoming a Christian is his greatest achievement in life. He is now serving as an elder at the Parkway Village Congregation in Memphis.

Benjamin Slocumb was born in Suffern, New York and he attended school in Fulton County, GA. In 1988, he married Chere Thomas and they relocated to Jacksonville, FL. Brother Slocumb and his wife were taught the gospel by his co-worker, Brother Ronnie Jones. They were baptized at the Westside Church of Christ on September 17, 1988, where they worshipped and served for ten years. In 1998, he and his family returned to Georgia where they attended the Old National Church of Christ for two years. In 1999, he accepted the job as minister of the Shannon Church of Christ in Union City, GA, where he is presently serving. Brother Slocumb attended the GA School of Preaching and the McDonough Bible Institute. He is a graduate of the Theological University of America. He recently went on a missionary trip to the Micronesian island of Pohnpei. He also serves as the Chaplain for the Union City Fire Department. Brother Slocumb has two grown sons, Benjamin and Blake.
